

Are Companies Addressing ESG?

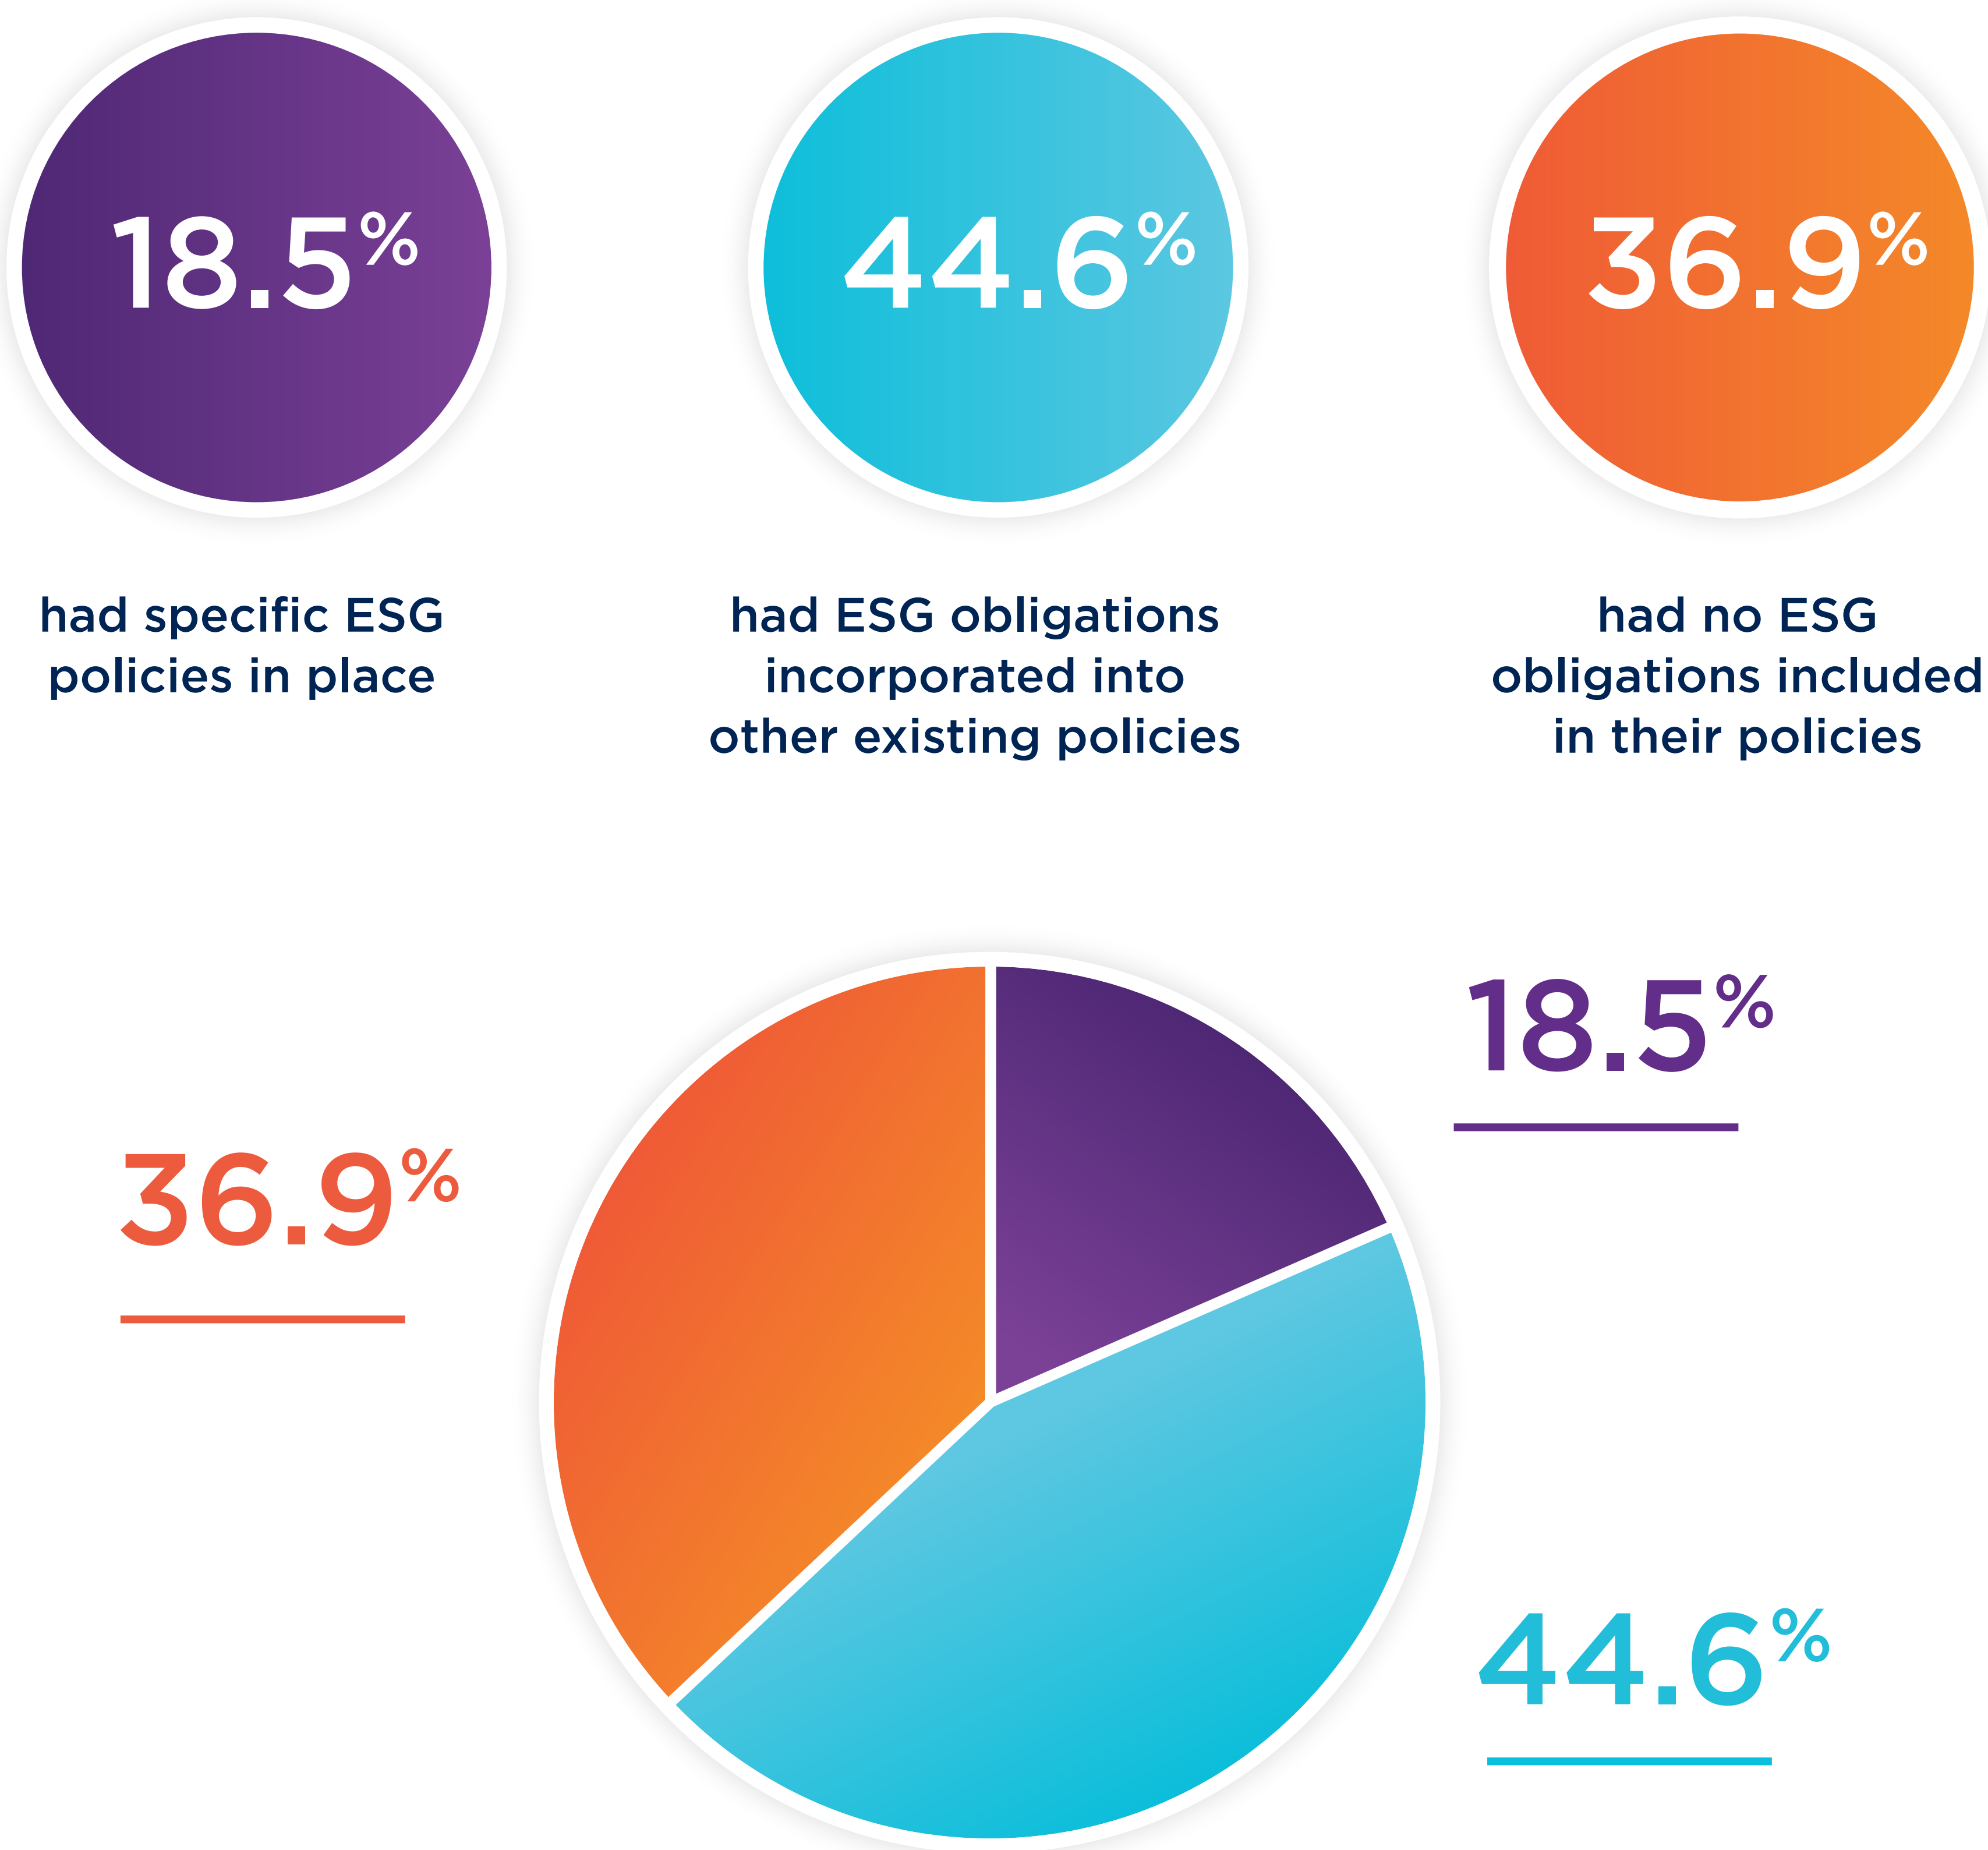

As Environmental, Social, and Governance regulations and expectations grow, so does the risk of reputational or financial damage from noncompliance.

We polled attendees at a recent Mitratesch webinar on Policy Management to see where they stood in terms of having ESG policies and Policy Management automation solutions in place.

Insight: Close to two-thirds of respondents had ESG obligations included in their policy structures.

Are ESG obligations included in your policies?

Insight: Nearly two-thirds do not have a policy management automation solution in place to help streamline ESG compliance.

Do you have policy automation software for policy creation, user attestation and reporting in place?
